

Hope Grows!

We seek a licensed physical therapy assistant to join our team.

We seek a licensed physical therapy assistant to join our dynamic, patient-centered, outpatient orthopedic practice. Our LPTAs function as a member of the healthcare team in our therapy services department. Our LPTAs work with our skilled technicians who offer mentoring. Therapy appointments are scheduled to provide you with 45 minutes one on one time with patients and built in documentation time. Benefits include paid licensures and continuing education; a competitive compensation package with productivity bonuses; 401K and profit sharing retirement plan.

Our ideal candidate has:

- Outpatient orthopedic experience
- Knowledge of post-operative rehabilitation protocols
- Ability to be adaptable and a strong team player
- Outstanding customer service, communication and team member skills
- Great attention to detail, compassion, empathy and strong interpersonal skills
- New grads may apply and be considered

Preference is given for:

- NextGen® or comparable EMR experience

Salem (the state capital of Oregon) is located in Oregon's Willamette Valley, the agricultural heart of Oregon where family farms grow everything from blueberries to Christmas trees to some of the world's best pinot noir. Salem's central location makes it perfect for day trips to Portland (only 50 minutes away), the Oregon Coast, or the scenic Columbia River Gorge and Mt Hood. From beach hikes to mountain skiing, winery or brewery tours to exploring the city, you'll never have a dull moment with so many diverse recreational options around.
